Four questions about friends

For the dinner table, inspired by Seneca's letters. You answer first.

Who do you want to tell when something good happens?

Who can you tell when something goes wrong?

Who stays with you when you're sad?

Who do you stay with when they're sad?

